

WORKFORCE COMPOSITION

Education was the largest industry sector in Glen Ellyn in 2020, accounting for roughly 4,475 jobs (41%)

This includes jobs in the local school districts and at the College of DuPage. Health Care, Accommodation and Food Service, Retail Trade, and Professional sectors each accounted for 5-10% of jobs. The top employment sectors for Glen Ellyn residents were Professional Services, Health Care and Education Services, each of which accounted for more than 10% of resident jobs.

The average annual wage of approximately 65% of Glen Ellyn workers is less than $63,000. Approximately 54% of workers in Glen Ellyn earn less than $3,333 per month, compared to 37% of residents in Glen Ellyn.

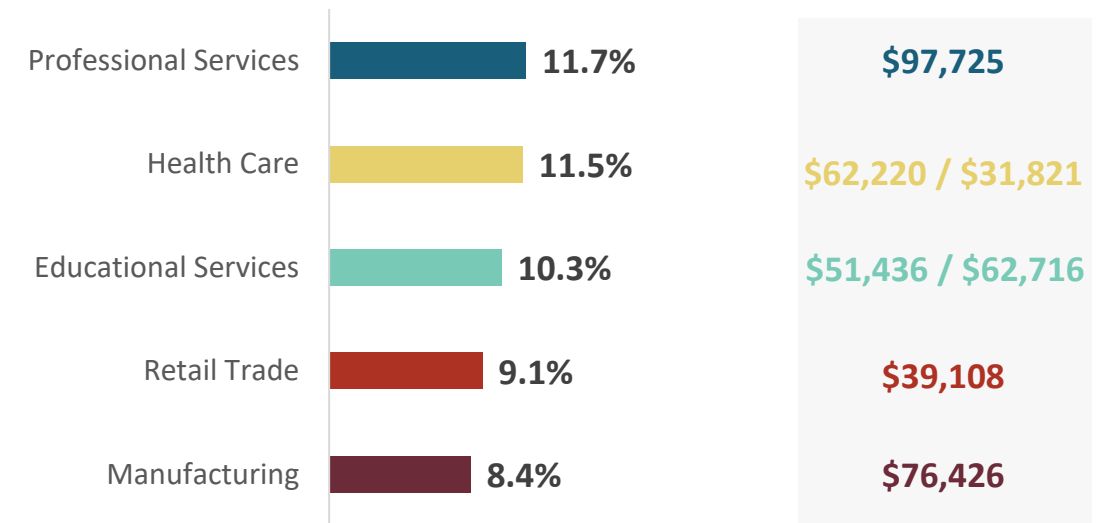

TOP INDUSTRY SECTORS, 2020 – GLEN ELLYN WORKERS<sup>[1]</sup>

DUPAGE COUNTY ANNUAL WAGE<sup>[2]</sup>

TOP INDUSTRY SECTORS, 2020 – GLEN ELLYN RESIDENTS<sup>[1]</sup>

[1] All primary jobs.

[2] Private / public annual wage when available, otherwise private jobs only.

Source: 2020 Longitudinal Employer-Household Dynamics (LEHD) – Primary jobs, 2020 Bureau of Labor Statistics (Quarterly Census of Employment & Wages), SB Friedman

WORKFORCE COMMUTING PATTERNS

Pre-pandemic, 8.5% of residents both lived and worked in Glen Ellyn

In 2020, 1,020 residents (8.5%) both lived and worked in Glen Ellyn. The remaining 91.5% of residents commuted elsewhere to work. Similarly, a large share of employees who work in Glen Ellyn live elsewhere. The top residence locations of Glen Ellyn workers and top employment locations of Glen Ellyn residents are presented on the following page.

Census figures have not yet been released articulating how these trends have shifted as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Source: 2020 Longitudinal Employer-Household Dynamics (LEHD) – Primary jobs, SB Friedman